

Top 8 reasons to attend the CHNC 2014 National Conference

It has never been so important to incorporate knowledge to action, by engaging nurses with others in knowledge exchange, enabling evidence informed practice, and inspiring excellence. The top 8 reasons to attend the CHNC conference or send a nurse to the conference include:

1. Hear key community health leaders confirmed to speak at this conference :
 - Dr Barbara Mildon, President of Canadian Nurses Association;
 - Michael Villeneuve, Lead, National Expert Commission at CNA.
2. Attend informative concurrent sessions including an estimated 70 speakers, 6 Networking Cafes, 40 PechaKucha presentations as well as digital and talking poster presentations on topics relevant to public health, home health and community health nurses across Canada.
3. Learn from experts in the fields of research, education and practice, administration and policy.
4. Discover solutions to complex community health nursing issues with dialogue and discussion on best practice from across the country.
5. Network and build partnerships with Community Health Nurses from across the country who share similar issues and challenges.
6. Attend preconference sessions on important topics such as communities of practice, determinants of health and evidence informed decision making.
7. Visit valuable sponsors and exhibitors
8. Get inspired and excited about being a community health nurse!

Register early: Go to www.chnc.ca and join today to take advantage of the significant member registration discount.

Don't forget about provincial nursing educational initiatives that may assist you with funding for the conference (e.g., the Nursing Education Initiative through RNAO).